

Birmingham Quality

Association for Laboratory Medicine

Interpretative Comments: Clinical Biochemistry Beyond the Numbers

Birmingham Quality & LabMed Southern Region meeting to celebrate the career of Dr Jacqueline Osypiw

- | | |
|----------------|---|
| 9:00am | Registration |
| 9:55am | Welcome and introductions |
| 10:00am | UKNEQAS Interpretative Comments Scheme: insights into the educational value
Dr Jacqueline Osypiw and Dr Anne-Marie Kelly |
| 10:45am | UKNEQAS for Interpretative Comments: rationale, mechanics and findings
Finlay MacKenzie, Director of Birmingham Quality |
| 11:30am | BREAK |
| 11:50am | Peptide Hormones: understanding their interpretation and impact
Dr Gwen Wark, Consultant Clinical Scientist |
| 12:35pm | What is a Chief Clinical Information Officer
Mark Sleeman, CIO, Berkshire & Surrey Pathology Services |
| 12:50pm | LUNCH |
| 2:00pm | The Biochemistry behind Renal Unit operations
Dr Emma Vaux, Consultant Nephrologist and General Physician |
| 2:45pm | The role of Biochemistry in Emergency Medicine
Dr Justine Loh, Consultant in Emergency Medicine |
| 3:30pm | BREAK |
| 3:45pm | Clinical Biochemistry Endocrinology interface
Dr Ian Walker, Consultant in Medical Biochemistry |
| 4:15pm | Is clinical interpretation using AI the future?
Discussion session led by Helen Bruce, Consultant Clinical Scientist |
| 4:50pm | Closing remarks |
| 5:00pm | Celebration drinks |